HARK! THE HERALD ANGELS SING

Christmas Song

1. Hark! the herald angels sing, "Glory to the new born King!
Peace on earth, and mercy mild; God and sinners reconciled!"
Joyful, all ye nations, rise; Join the triumph of the skies;
With th' angelic hosts proclaim, "Christ is born in Bethlehem!"
Refrain — Hark! the herald angels sing,
"Glory to the new-born King!"

2. Christ, by highest heav'n adored, Christ, the everlasting Lord:
Long desired, behold Him come, Finding here His humble home.
Veiled in flesh the God-head see, Hail th' incarnate Deity!
Pleased as man with men to dwell, Jesus our Immanuel.
Refrain — Hark! the herald angels sing,
"Glory to the new-born King!"

3. Hail, the heav'n-born Prince! Hail, the Sun of righteousness!
Light and life to all He brings, Ris'n with healing in His wings.
Let us then with angels sing, "Glory to the new-born King!
Peace on earth and mercy mild; God and sinners reconciled!"
Refrain — Hark! the herald angels sing,
"Glory to the new-born King!"

HOLY NIGHT OF OUR SAVIOUR'S BIRTH

Beautiful Christmas Story

And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

(And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:)

To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

And she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes lying in a manger.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them. Luke 2:1-20.

THE DAY OF YOUTH

Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;

While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain:

In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened.

And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird and all the daughters of music shall be brought low;

Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets:

Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern.

Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

Ecclesiastes 12:1-7, 13-14

PRAISE GOD FOR HIS GREATNESS AND GOODNESS

O COME, let us sing unto the Lord;
let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving,
and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God,
and a great King above all gods.

In his hand are the deep places of the earth:
the strength of the hills is his also.

The sea is his, and he made it:
and his hands formed the dry land.

O come, let us worship and bow down:
let us kneel before the Lord our maker.

For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

To day if ye will hear his voice. Psalm 95:1-7

Unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of Righteousness arise with healing in his wings.

THE LIVING CHRIST

Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie,

And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre,

And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.

Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

Jesus said unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabonni; which is to say, Master.

Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethern, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God.

Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept.

For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

John 20: 6-18; I Corinthians 15:20-26

Rev. George Bennard — Rev. George Bennard

1. On a hill far a - way stood an old rug-ged cross, The em-blem of suf-f'ring and shame; And I love that old cross where the dear-est and best
2. Oh, the old rug-ged cross, so de-spised by the world, Has a wondrous at- trac-tion for me; For the dear Lamb of God left His glo - ry a - bove
3. In the old rug-ged cross, stained with blood so di-vine, A won - drous beau - ty I see; For 'twas on that old cross Je - sus suf-fered and died
4. To the old rug-ged cross I will ev - er be true, Its shame and re- proach gladly bear; Then He'll call me some day to my home far a - way,

CHORUS

For a world of lost sin-ners was slain. So I'll cher-ish the old rug-ged cross, the
To bear it to dark Cal - va - ry.
To par-don and sanc-ti - fy me.
Where His glo-ry for - ev - er I'll share.

cross, ... Till my tro-phies at last I lay down; I will cling to the old rug-ged cross, old rug-ged cross, ... And ex-change it some day for a crown.

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY, LORD GOD ALMIGHTY

1. Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee;
Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and Mighty!
God in Three Persons, blessed Trinity!

2. Holy, Holy! All the saints adore Thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before Thee,
Who wert, and art, and evermore shall be.

3. Holy, Holy, Holy! Tho' the darkness hide Thee,
Tho' the eye of sinful man Thy glory may not see,
Only Thou art holy; there is none beside Thee
Perfect in pow'r, in love, in purity.

4. Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty!
All Thy works shall praise Thy name in earth, and sky, and sea;
Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and mighty!
God in Three Persons, blessed Trinity!

WISDOM AND UNDERSTANDING

Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding.

For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

She is more precious than rubies: and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honour.

Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: and happy is every one that retaineth her.

The Lord by wisdom hath foundeth the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens.

By his knowledge the depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew.

My son, let not them depart from thine eyes: keep sound wisdom and discretion:

So shall they be life unto thy soul, and grace to thy neck.

Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble.

When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid: yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Proverbs 3:13-24, 5-6

I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. John 10:9-11

And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. John 6:35

This is the bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever. John 6:58

I am the vine, Ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. John 15:5

Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. John 13:13

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

She said unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world. John 11:25-27

CHRISTMAS WORSHIP IN THE HOME

A Christmas Carol — Luther's Cradle Hymn

Away in a manger, no crib for a bed,
The little Lord Jesus laid down His sweet head.
The stars in the sky looked down where He lay,
The little Lord Jesus, asleep on the Hay.

The Scripture Story of the Saviour's Birth. Luke 2:1-20, see page 471.

Carol — Hark The Herald Angels Sing, see page 470.

The Scripture Story of the Wise Men — Matthew 2:1-2, 9-11

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, saying, where is he that is born King of the Jews? For we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worhip him.

When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold and frankincense, and myrrh.

A Christmas Carol — Silent Night

Silent night, holy night, All is calm, all is bright;
Round yon Virgin Mother and Child! Holy Infant, so tender and mild
Sleep in heavenly peace, Sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night, holy night, Wonderous Star, lend thy light;
With the angels let us sing, Alleluia to our King;
Christ the Saviour is born, Christ the Saviour is born.

A Christmas Prayer — Silent or prayerfully by one of the family.

The Christmas Benediction (to be prayed or sung)

O Little Town of Bethlehem, see page 472.

Meditation —

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.
Isaiah 9:6

WE HAVE AN ANCHOR

1. Will your anchor hold in the storms of life,
When the clouds unfold their wings of strife?
When the strong tide lifts, and the cables strain,
Will you anchor, drift, or firm remain?
Refrain
We have an anchor that keeps the soul
Steadfast and sure while the billows roll,
Fastened to the Rock which cannot move,
Grounded firm and deep in the Saviour's love.

2. It is safely moored, 'twill the storm with-stand,
For 'tis well secured by the Saviour's hand;
And the cables, passed from His heart to mine,
Can defy the blast, thru strength divine. Refrain

3. It will firmly hold in the straits of fear,
When the breakers have told the reef is near;
Though the tempest rage and the wild winds blow,
Not an angry wave shall our bark o'er flow. Refrain

4. When our eyes behold thru the gath'ring night
The city of gold, our harbor bright,
We shall anchor fast by the heav'nly shore,
With the storms all past for ever more. Refrain

ZION METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH
DUTCH HILL (DEUTSCH HUEGEL), SECTION 10, LENZBURG TOWNSHIP, ST. CLAIR COUNTY, ILLINOIS

In 1835, the Board of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church invested the sum of $100.00 for Missionary Work. This sum was the standard salary for unmarried ministers at the time.

Dr. William Nast, who died at the age of 92 years, in 1899, was entrusted to carry on the new field of labor, preaching the gospel in homes and camp meetings in the German tongue among the German people in and around Cincinnati, Ohio.

Rev. Ludwig S. Jacoby came to St. Louis, Missouri, where he opened the German Methodist Mission, preaching the gospel among the German people in and west of St. Louis, Missouri.

Rev. J. M. Hartman opened the Belleville Mission, traveling on horseback in St. Clair County, Illinois, holding services in Camp Meetings, and interested members homes. Through his influence was founded the Mascoutah Mission, in 1841, establishing the first German Methodist Episcopal Church in Illinois.

The Bethel German Methodist Episcopal Church, Mascoutah, was one of five in St. Clair County, Illinois.

The others were at Jackson Street, Belleville, Lebanon, Summerfield, and Zion Methodist Episcopal Church, Dutch Hill, (New Aargau, Deutsch Huegel), Section 10, Lenzburg Township, in and among the Swiss German people or settlement, St. Clair County, Illinois.

Rev. William Hemminghaus, and Rev. Conrad Eisenmayer, missionary Ministers, served the Wesley Chapel of Red Bud Mission, Randolph County, Illinois, in 1844-1845, appointed by the Monroe Mission Conference. For many years, the Missionary Ministers of Belleville and Red Bud, Monroe Missions, traveling on horseback, held services in the homes of interested members, namely, Bald, Dressel, Hardy, Wildy, Baumann, Weiss and other christian pioneer families, who lived in and near the Swiss settlement, Dutch Hill, (Deutsch Huegel, New Aargau) Lenzburg Township, St. Clair County, Illinois.

Camp Meetings also were held for many years during the Summer month of August, on the farm, known as the Bernard Steiner homestead, later John Hardy Farm. The Camp was near the cross road, where the Tamaroa road crosses the New Athens Baldwin road, Dutch Hill, Section 10, Lenzburg Township, St. Clair County, Illinois.

In 1860 these interested christian pioneer families and missionary ministers organized the Church, known as Zion Methodist Episcopal Church, (Deutsch Huegel) Dutch Hill, Section 10, Lenzburg Township, St. Clair County, Illinois, still as heretofore meeting in homes, for worship.

On February 1868, John and Catherine (nee Morgenthaler) Hardy, donated and conveyed land to the trustees, on which the Zion Methodist Episcopal Church was erected, for public worship. The newly erected church was dedicated, Pentecost Sunday, May 31, 1868, being the first church building in Lenzburg, and Township, and New Athens, and Township. The Hardy family furnished a room for the early pioneer Missionary Ministers, for their convenience and comfort, during their stay in this community. Later they also built an addition to the barn to shelter the horse and buggy.

Zion Methodist Episcopal Church was affiliated with Red Bud Methodist Church for many years. Of late years, ministers of Marissa Methodist Church Circuit, of Carbondale District, Southern Illinois Conference, serves the Church. Rev. Martin Roper, who served Zion Methodist Episcopal Church, the past three years, was succeeded by the newly appointed minister, Rev. John W. Cummins, in June 1955.

GLORIOUS THINGS OF THEE ARE SPOKEN

Church Hymn

Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion, city of our God;
He, whose word cannot be broken,
Formed thee for His own abode;
On the Rock of Ages founded,
What can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded
Thou may'st smile at all Thy foes.

See the streams of living waters,
Springing from eternal love,
Well supply thy sons and daughters,
And all fear of want remove;
Who can faint, while such a river
Ever flows their thirst to assuage?
Grace which, like the Lord, the giver,
Never fails from age to age.

Round its habitation hov'ring,
See the cloud and fire appear
For a glory and a cov'ring,
Showing that the Lord is near!
He who gives us daily manna,
He who listens to our cry,
To Him raise the glad Hosanna,
Rising to His throne on high.

Schafisheim, Canton Aargau, Switzerland

Schafisheim, Canton Aargau, Switzerland, is the birthplace of Samuel Wildi, paternal grandfather of Alexander Wildy, Sr., and ancestors, who settled there before 1500. Samuel Wildi migrated in 1817 to America. He arrived (New Aargau, Deutsch Huegel) Dutch Hill Prairie, Lenzburg Township, St. Clair County, Illinois, United States of America, January 7, 1818, the year the State of Illinois was admitted to the Union. NATURE OF CHURCH

Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God; And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord: In whom ye also are buildeth together for an habitation of God through the spirit. There is one body, and one spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; One Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. Ephesians 2:19 22; 4:4-6

When Disaster Strikes Be Still My Soul: The Lord Is On Thy Side

On Wednesday, May 30, 1917, 6:30 P.M., Memorial Day, a tornado wrought havoc in southeast Missouri and Illinois. In its path, it left a death toll of 67 lives. The three pictures at left give mute evidence of the tornado's destructive force in the area of Section 2 and 9, Lenzburg Township, St. Clair County, Illinois.

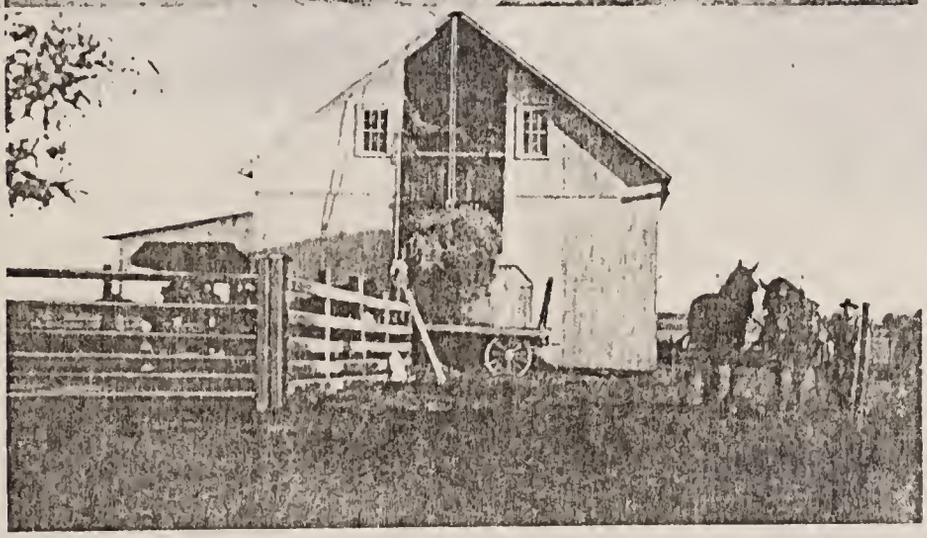
Left: Total loss of barn, 34 feet wide, 54 feet long, 20 feet high, with porch on east side and shed on west side, erected December, 1897 on the home place, Section 2, of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Wildy Sr., family. People shown on pictures are neighbors who volunteered their time and labor to clean up the ruins. Photo -- northeast to southwest.

Left: Another view of same barn with Wildy home in background. Buried beneath the wreckage were 9 horses, 1 mule, 3 milk cows, 2 calves, each laid to their side, still tied to their manger. All the animals were rescued alive after the tornado. All buildings on both farms were destroyed except the family home in which they found shelter during the fury of the tornado. Photo — south to north.

A visitor said, "Mr. Wildy, I can't see how you can hold up so well, with such a loss," and he said, "Look what I've got," pointing to his family, seated around the dinner table. "Bless God, we are all here together."

Activities

Haymaking time on the Wildy farm. The first load of alfalfa hay, season of 1925, going into the north door of barn. Grant F. on the wagon, pinned the fork, Alexander Sr., father, driving team that pulls the hay up into the barn on the hay rope. Photo, Harry O. Wildy.



Last forkful of alfalfa hay, late summer 1933, going up in the Wildy barn making it full to the door. Alexander C. on the wagon, Alexander Sr., father, driving team on hay rope. Photo, Pearl Wildy.

Another view showing the same group, also more of the same wood-pile as above, which usually took a day to saw. The trees in the right background are part of the Wildy fruit orchard. Photo, Pearl Wildy, 1934.

The Wildys harvested their grain with a binder pulled by four horses. The binder cut an eight foot swath, tying the grain with sisal twine into bundles about a foot in diameter or any size desired. By moving a lever, the placing of the tie could be shifted so that the bundles would be tied near the middle. The driver of the binder would at convenient places, usually in rows, trip the carrier which held several bundles and the bundles would slide off. Generally two men would follow and set the bundles up in shocks. Photo, Alexander C. Wildy, June, 1934.

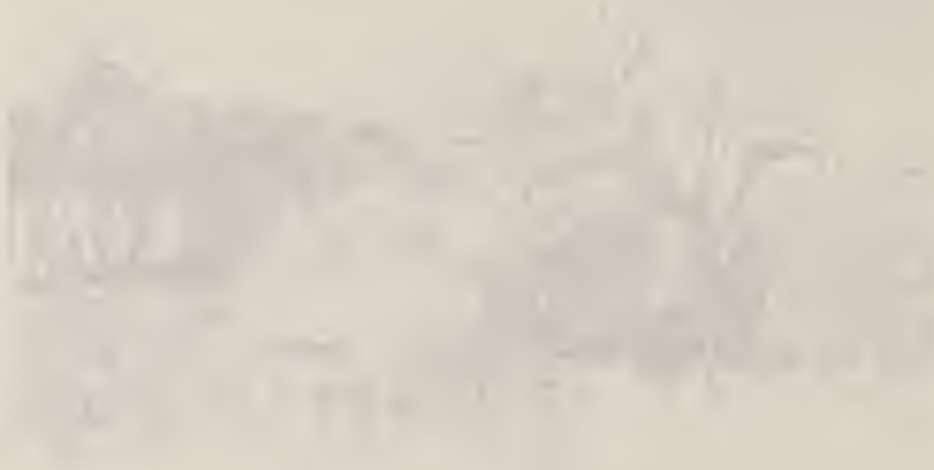
Lunch time at Wildys. During the threshing season, lunch was served at 9:00 A.M., and 4:00 P.M., usually in the shade of a nearby tree or bundle wagon. This scene was taken east of the garden, southeast corner. "Wildy" wagon and barn in background. Photo, Alexander C. Wildy, July, 1937.



Threshing Activities on the Wildy Farm

Threshing for the Wildys. The outfit is a 20 horse-power single cylinder steam engine that furnished power for a threshing machine with a 36 inch wide cylinder. It is equipped with a self-feeder that cuts the bundle bands and feeds the bundles into the machine, also with an automatic grain weigher or measuring device that puts even amounts of grain in the bags. The rear end has a wind stacker that blows the threshed straw on a pile. The crew consists of an engineer who fires and operates the engine, a water-hauler, who hauls water that the engine uses, a seperator man, who takes care of the operation of the thresher and a man who puts on and takes off the bags from the grain weigher spout. The farmer for whom it is being threshed (in this instance, the Wildys) furnishes enough rack wagons with teams and drivers to haul bundles from the field to thresher, the men in the field to pitch bundles on the wagons, the men to haul grain from the threshing machine to his bins, a water boy with jug making periodic rounds, thereby supplying everyone with drinking water. Threshing 1200 bushels was considered a good days output, 1350 to 1400 bushels was exceptionally good. A group of neighboring farmers would join together, making what was known as a "ring," and exchanging labor with each other would thereby supply the necessary labor and save a lot of expenses. Photos, Alexander C. Wildy, 1934.

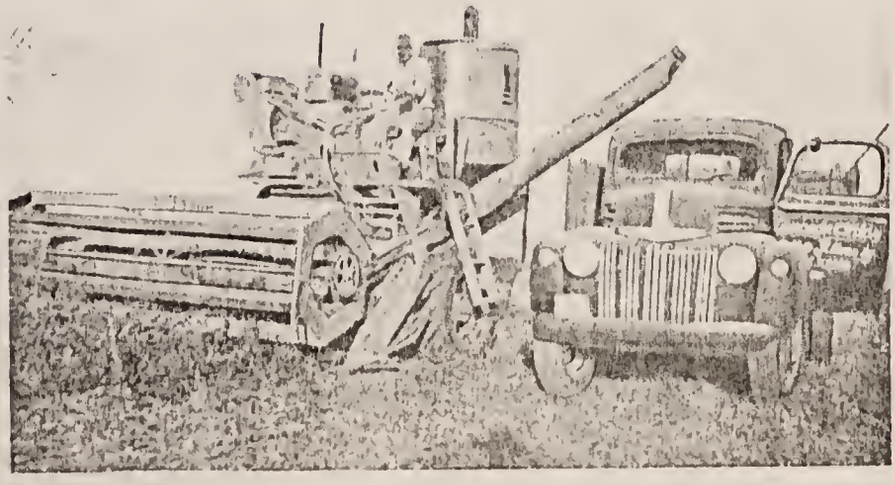
Harvesting With Self-propelled Combine and Truck



Harvesting soybeans with a self-propelled combine that cuts a twelve foot swath, operated by Alexander C. Wildy, who is about to unload a hopper of soybeans into the truck. A combine is a harvesting machine that will in one continuous operation cut standing grain in the field, thresh it, and put clean, marketable grain in its hopper. By making the necessary adjustments, it will harvest different kinds of grain.

LIFE OF SERVICE AND CHRISTIANITY

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

And to be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

So we being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

Having the gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy, according to the proportion of faith;

Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth on teaching;

Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour prefering one another;

Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;

Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality.

Bless them which persecute you; bless, and curse not.

Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

Romans 12:1-18
